CARMEL Turns THUMBS DOWN on NEW LIQUOR STORE

A letter protesting a liquor store on Dolores Street across from the Carmel Art Association Galleries was sent by the City of Carmel Wednesday to the State Board of Equalization.

Prepared by City Clerk Peter Mawdsley and City Attorney Thomas Perry, the letter states Carmel's strong objections to issuance of another liquor license in the village.

In the meantime a dozen letters from Carmel residents have been received at the Carmel City Hall, all of them protesting establishment of the liquor store. For the many persons who have asked what they can do to help, Mr. Mawdsley asks them to write their objections in letter form to George M. Stout, liquor administrator, State Board of Equalization, Sacramento.

The ruckus started several days ago when A. C. Bigham, of Salinas, owner of nine Monterey County liquor licenses, offsale and onsale, asked the B. of E. to transfer to Carmel a license previously issued for a location in Monterey. Mayor Allen Knight, speaking for the City Council, said the village already has 26 liquor licenses, which he felt was too many, and that the proposed liquor store would be in a location next to the Post Office where many children pass every day.

The Board of Equalization will hold a hearing on the matter at an, as yet, unannounced date. Although it will depend to a great extent on legal aspects, city officials feel a strong protest from Carmel will be heeded by the liquor board.

TO MARRY WILLKIE'S SON

Of interest to local friends is the news of the engagement of Rosalie Heffelfinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Peavey Heffelfinger, of Wayzata, Minnesota, and Philip H. Willkie, of Rushville, Indiana, son of Mrs. Wendell L. Willkie and the late Mr. Willkie.

Rosalie's grandfather, Frank T. Heffelfinger, of Minneapolis, spends several months each year at Del Monte Lodge, Pebble Beach, and her mother was a recent guest at the Lodge. A wedding date for the pair has not been announced.

HORSE SHOW This WEEKEND

The Annual Pebble Beach Summer Horse Show is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday at the Pebble Beach Stables.

Elsie Holt and Peggy Glaser, co-chairmen for the event, called a meeting today to discuss further plans for the affair. Those who attended were Kathie Holt, Lynn McMath, Sandra Six, Tommy Bunn, Sharon Buckner, Sheila Godwin, Bobby Buckner, Nancy Veit, Helene Daggy, Ronald Stolich, Ann Shoenhair, Cecelia Van Strum, Bonnie Lynn Redhead and Sandra Stolich.

Judges for the show will be J. A. Gough, of Pasadena, who will judge the English classes, and Alec Wilson, of Los Gatos, who will judge Western classes.

A large out of town entry is expected, including a number from the Gymkhana Club in San Mateo. Samuel C. Register, Jr., son of Mrs. William G. Barrett, of San Mateo, has already entered his horse.

Peggy Glaser, who took top honors in the Santa Barbara Horse Show last week with her hunter "Culpepper" will be back from the Santa Rosa show in time to ride in the Pebble Beach event. Mrs. James M. R. Glaser and Peggy will meet Mr. Glaser, who is planeing in from Chicago, today in San Francisco and the trio will travel to Santa Rosa together.

Cecilia and Clarissa Van Strum, daughters of the Kenneth S. Van Strums, of Santa Barbara, who are spending the summer on the Monterey Peninsula, will ride in the show, as will their house guest, Felicia Chappellett, daughter of the Felix Chappellets, of Pacific Palisades.

Among the affairs planned to honor the entrants in the Pebble Beach show are a buffet supper Miss Glaser will host Saturday evening at the Pebble Beach home of her parents. Sharon Buckner, daughter of the Robert Buckners, of Pebble Beach, will entertain with a luncheon Sunday noon; and Elsie Holt has planned a dancing party at the Carmel Valley home of her parents, the Edison Holts.

REGISTERED SKEET SHOOT AUTHORIZED FOR PEBBLE BEACH GUN CLUB

The O. N. Ford Memorial Skeet Shoot will be held Sunday at 8 p.m. at the Pebble Beach Gun Club and it is registered with the National Skeet Shooting Association, according to Captain Bill Donnelly, manager of the Gun Club.

The event is to be a 50-target all bore shoot for which many sterling prizes in all classes will be offered.

The local club is the only onefield layout in the West to be authorized for a registered shoot, Donnelly said. In addition to refreshments, trapshooting will also be featured during the day-long event.

With many improvements on the Pebble Beach Gun Club, Donnelly reports he is attempting to bring skeet shooting back to the same high level it enjoyed years ago at the old Hotel Del Monte.

NEEDLEWORK WANTED FOR CARMEL PTA

Sewing bees are being held one evening a week in the homes of various members of the Carmel Parent-Teachers Association in order to furnish material for the Needlework Booth at the PTA Carnival Saturday, September 16, at the Sunset School grounds.

Mrs. Howard Byrne is chairman of the needlework committee, assisted by Mrs. E. Henderson, Mrs.
Reed Pollock, Mrs. Belle Seipel and Mrs. Robert Jones. For information ladies are asked to call Mrs. Byrne at 7-4841.

Donations are needed of cotton scraps, felt hats, kapok pillows, yarn, trimmings and completed articles such as aprons, baby clothes and toys, Mrs. Byrne reports.

"GENTLEMEN PREFER BLONDES" THEME OF BEACH CLUB PARTY

"Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" is the theme set for the second in the series of costume parties at The Beach Club at Pebble Beach
Saturday.

The bar at The Beach Club will be converted into a French sidewalk cafe, and the Surf Room will also be transformed into a room of that period.

With this theme costumes will vary from the French can can at the Moulin Rouge to the Flapper on Broadway; from the Daddy to Diamond Jim, and such items as the cloche, long waistlines, nickers, blazers, coonskin coats, pork-pie hats, will be much in evidence that night.

SPREADING the NEWS...

By Howard Statham

A STATE OF EMERGENCY was declared a few days back in one of the local shops because of the necessary absence of the regular sales force, and an elderly but gallant gentleman felt it his duty to lend a helping hand during the crisis. While he was holding down the fort, a lady in the market for a pair of stockings came in and inquired whether the shop carried hose. The gentleman said no, it didn't, but he knew where she could get some, and of the best quality, too--and he pointed across the street to a hardware store.

MARGARET (PEG) PEASLEY, business associate of Dave Prince, the Carmel travel agent, gave me a few of her cast-off travel magazines recently. In the April issue of Hawaiiana, a magazine that will tell you a lot of things you probably didn't know about Hawaii, I found an item that should be of interest to all organized reformed-drinkers who are planning trips to Honolulu.

On page 6, under the heading "Miss Your Club?" is the notation: "Compiled by the Hawaii Visitors Bureau, the following clubs of national status welcome visiting members: "...Included in the list are such varied groups as the Business and Professional Women's Club, Camera Club of Hawaii, Credit Women's Breakfast Club, Daughters of the Nile, Delta Zeta of Honolulu, Malacological Society, Odd Fellows, and that old standby the Soroptimist Club, to name a few.

Top spot on the alphabetical list is occupied by the American Legion, with 19 posts to its credit, and the third entry is Beta Sigma Phi, with two chapters. And squeezed in between them is the club with the toughest membership requirements of them all: Alcoholics Anonymous. So if you miss your club, and you're going to Hawaii..

A NOTE TO MRS. G. R. OF CARMEL - Dear Mrs. G. R.: After our pleasant conversation of last week on the subject of earwigs, you were no doubt considerably enlightened by reading (if you did) the article on the ravenous little creatures appearing in the Leisure section of Sunday's San Francisco Chronicle. Now, I trust, you know all you want to know about the insect whose name through the years has played so wonderfully on your imagination whenever it has been mentioned in passing. But never again, I'm afraid, will you be able to dwell so lovingly upon these two syllables, never again will the word earwig bring to your mind the same vague and fascinating image as heretofore. No, from now on out you're faced with reality--an earwig is a dirty, miserable, unprincipled little scoundrel and nothing else. However, we live and learn.

If I may be of any help in dispelling the gloom into which the facing of facts sometimes casts us headlong, may I commend to your attention a short article on page 61 of the July 31 issue of Life Magazine--an article on one of God's creatures whose very name, like that of the earwig, testifies to the poetic nature that is mankind's. To me the cowbird, unlike the earwig, grows more interesting as one's knowledge of it increases.

The cowbird, called by Life "the pesky parasite which lays its eggs in other birds' nests," has several qualities that should make you take it warmly to your heart, Mrs. G. R. First, it is described as "such a sly, furtive creature that it is seldom caught interloping." Second, it never builds its own nests. Third, it usually lays its eggs at dawn (a fine time of day for that sort of thing) and leaves the hatching of them up to other birds. Fourth, the young cowbird quite often crowds out of the nest the unhatched eggs that eventually would have become its step-brothers and sisters, or, failing that, starves its young adopted relations by taking all the food rounded up for them by their father and mother. And then, perhaps not last and certainly not least, the name cowbird itself--that I know you will like.

But it is possible, after all this, that you have been an admirer of the cowbird for many years. In such case, the best I can do by way of something new is to offer to introduce you to a couple of birds that belong to my wife and me--two zebra finches who are known about the house as Miles and Flora. Outwardly they are neither sly nor furtive, and they don't interlope. What's more, they build their own nests and Flora lays eggs not only at dawn but at any other time of day that suits her fancy--and she can be pretty fancy when she has a mind to.

And also, they not only don't depend on other birds to hatch their eggs--they don't even hatch them themselves. They sit on them a few days and then, apparently bored with it all, kick them out of the nest, break them, and eat them. We've been told it's a vitamin deficiency, and we've tried vitamins. We think there's more to it than that, and maybe, even, somewhere down in the dark and dusty crannies of their brains, there might be something slightly sly and furtive about Miles and Flora--although it doesn't show in their everyday activities.

Maybe you, Mrs. G. R., could tell us what it is about them--but even if you can't, you'd probably like them, so come on over some evening for an introduction and be prepared to talk of cowbirds, earwigs and maybe a truffle or two. You look like the type of person who would get along fine with truffles.

ALL-TIME PEAK POWER DEMAND IN PG&E AREA

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company last week served the greatest peak in power demand in the history of Northern and Central California.

James B. Black, president, today announced that the new all-time record peak demand was more than 2½ million kilowatts, which will probably be the peak for 1950.

The new peak represented an increase of 209,000 kilowatts over the 1949 record, which was established July 27, 1949. It was 123 per cent greater than the pre-war peak of 10 years ago.

Christmas in AUGUST?

No... But Christmas Lay-aways in August and September keep away those headaches in December (And, besides, prices may increase).

Not only are your shopping problems solved the easy way when you start your Christmas shopping early... but your gift-budget gets a break too. By making your purchases early and placing them on lay-away, your gifts are all paid for by the time Christmas arrives and you need them.

KIWANIS COSTUME DANCE SLATED FOR AUGUST 12

The Kiwanis Club of Carmel is throwing a wing-ding at 8 p.m. Saturday, August 12, at the Mission Ranch. It's to be an open-to-the-public costume dance as a benefit for needy individuals and groups, and also to raise money for the annual Kiwanis Youth's Halloween Party.

Tickets are available at Gledhill's and at the Stocking Shop in Carmel. Dick Sumner is chairman of the dance and Joe Gledhill is ticket chairman.

CARMEL WORK CENTER ENLARGING FACILITIES

Carmel Work Center, which was organized to handle the creations of local artisans, has found it necessary to enlarge its space facilities.

When interviewed today, George W. Beeman, of Pebble Beach, who is working in conjunction with local craftsmen in this fast growing project, said that the additional space was necessary because of the rapidity with which the mail order end of the business is expected to develop.

The second store is located on Mission near 4th Street in the building formerly occupied by the Lamp Lighters.

The store will handle both retail sales and mail order and is a complete addition to the store already located in the Seven Arts Court on Lincoln.

LOCAL CRAFTSMEN'S WORK TO BE DISPLAYED AT CALIFORNIA FAIR

Helen Beecher, of Carmel, and Rose Veren, of Monterey, were among the 110 persons from Northern California whose work was chosen this week for display in the Crafts Show at the California State Fair in Sacramento, August 31 through September 10.

Outstanding work in weaving, jewelry, metal work and ceramics will be displayed in the Arts Building, which serves as the main entrance to the open air Art Show. Winners in the crafts section will

63 REQUEST ACTIVE RESERVE COMMISSIONS

Sixty three reserve officers currently on duty at Fort Ord in enlisted or warrant grades have submitted application for recall to active commissioned status, the post Adjutant General's office has announced.

Other Regular Army enlisted men and warrant officers holding reserve commissions who desire recall to duty as commissioned officers should apply to first commander having general court martial jurisdiction. They will remain with their present units pending notification of Department of Army action on applications.

Reserve officers in virtually all arms and services are needed for active duty in their present grade, Sixth Army Headquarters has announced.

WINS AWARD

Annette J. McIndoo, of Carmel, this week was awarded a Certificate of Achievement by Major General Robert T. Frederick, Fort Ord commandant, for her "efficient and noteworthy performance of duty as a clerk-typist in the Post Ordnance Department."

Mrs. C. Taylor Pillsbury and Countess Genevieve de Sugny in the costumes they will wear to the "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" dinner dance at the Beach Club Saturday, August 5. This is the second in the series of costume parties being held at the popular club. Both gowns are from the era of the "mad '20s" when there were no waistlines, the skirts were knee length or above and coiffures were short and shingled. The tap room at The Beach Club will resemble a Paris Sidewalk Cafe and the Surf Room will have an appropriate decor. Photo by JULIAN P. GRAHAM.

ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S

WHO IS IT?

Corum B. Jackson, president of the Carmel Board of Realtors, is featured in this week's "Who Is It?" A prominent Carmel realtor since 1932, Mr. Jackson this year formed the local Rotary and is president of that organization. Born in 1896, he lived until 1929 at Huntington, West Virginia, where he was associated with the American Car and Foundry Co. for 13 years. Following three years in the realty business, he made the long trip to Paso Robles and went to work for the Taylor Hotel there. Three years later, after having visited Carmel, he decided to move here and try his hand at Realty again. He became associated with Byington Ford of Carmel Realty Company and eventually bought Mr. Ford out. In the years that he has lived in Carmel, Mr. Jackson has been responsible for the development of two large subdivisions: The Mission Tract and the Rancho Rio Vista Tract at the entrance to Carmel Valley. The Mission Tract, formerly a horse ranch, now has about 70 homes on it. As this property immediately adjoined the Carmel Mission, Mr. Jackson saw to it that areas next to the local landmark were not developed, but held aside for purchase by the Carmel Parish. He felt it was of prime importance to preserve the original beauty of the Mission, a factor which may have brought about his appointment as chairman of the local advisory committee of the Monterey County Planning Commission. Among the other offices that he holds are those of vice president of the Monterey County Fair and Executive Committee member of the Monterey County Tax Council.

"BRIDE AND GROOM" PROGRAM GIVES WIDE PUBLICITY TO CARMEL VALLEY

Carmel Valley resorts and Rancho Los Laureles Lodge Monday received nationwide publicity with the "airing" over American Broadcasting Company's network hookup of the popular show "Bride and groom."

Featured was the wedding of a popular Bay Area couple, Jane Freeman, of San Francisco, and Richard Gates, of Oakland. The couple, as guests of Herb and Ollie Brook, will spend five days of their honeymoon at Rancho Los Laureles Lodge in the valley.

The Gates will arrive at Monterey Airport aboard a United Airlines plane Saturday at 11:05 a.m. They will transfer to a plane of Peninsula Aircraft piloted by Walt Stewart, who will set them down on the Carmel Valley Airstrip, where they will be met by the Brooks.

FORT ORD ACTIVATES ADDITIONAL RECRUIT TRAINING REGIMENT

In line with the Army's over-all expansion program, the 4th Infantry Division at Fort Ord has activated a third recruit training regiment which will turn 3200 additional inductees and volunteers into trained soldiers during each 14-week cycle.

Operating up to now as a specialist training unit which included the 6th Army Leaders' Course, the 22nd Infantry Regiment will join Fort Ord's 8th and 12th Infantry Regiments in the intensive recruit training program. Lieutenant Colonel James Y. Adams will continue as commanding officer of the 22nd.

If the need arises, a possible fourth training regiment will be organized, bringing the post's overall training capacity to 12,800.

The 4th Infantry Division reorganization will transfer operation of the Leaders' Course to that of a separate component, the 4th Reconnaissance Company. Clerk-typist, automotive and other specialist schools will operate within the 4th Quartermaster Company. The present casual battalion will be re-designated as the 4th Replacement Co. The mission of all specialized training units will remain unchanged under the new setup. Top-level administration of the groups will be handled by the newly-created Headquarters Special Troops, 4th Infantry Division, under command of Colonel Joseph L. Langevin.

The 44-hour week in effect at Fort Ord since July 22 will provide 56 additional hours of indoctrination during the 14-week recruit training cycle, it was explained.

HOST PARTY FOR "THE SWAN" CAST

Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Norberg, of Carmel, hosted a champagne punch party and buffet supper last Saturday for cast members of "The Swan," current production at The Wharf Theater, Fishermen's Wharf, Monterey. Thirty five guests were present.

"The Swan," directed by Dan Tothoroh and produced by Kenn Smith, was originally scheduled to end its run last weekend, but by popular demand it was held over one more week, running tonight and Saturday night.

The next production by The Wharf Players will be Sutton Vane's "Outward Bound," which opens August 17.
